

I scare easily

I do not lament the polemics that result from a clash of two extremes

Home is both a place and a practice

Home is, of course, a disciplinary mechanism.

Love that vertigo when you've run out of feelings & start recycling old ones

My screen protector is definitely the dirtiest part of my body

Once enough kin energy is stored you give it away.

Exact moments before Payne writes Common Sense the silence gains color

The subtler violence of one is in the negative space of the other.

The animal that is vulnerable is usually the most cruel It is impossible to separate it from what it remembers sun beats wind leaps

blood memory

apocalyptic self-image crystallized affections of pious solace emptiness from this ceaseless war i want to sin against purity

bliss hovering above the void haptic fallout feverish blood sun beats down

cheerful obscene boredom

angel
 of the sun

 singing with a hard fist life's benevolent corruption everything is hard against the tongue everything dissolving into otherworldly paradise make heaven my home i never learn my lesson
